

ADAM LEWIS/MUSIC

Adam is a BAFTA award-winning composer, producer and song-writer. A founder member of London hip-hop collective Arkane, he also released material under his Mr Ronz moniker. Described by Hip-Hop Connection as “DJ Shadow level cinematic with added humanity”, the A War Of Nerves album was one of Huw Stephens’ albums of the year on BBC Radio 1.

After writing the title song for the movie KIDULTHOOD, he cut his teeth scoring all 8 seasons of Law & Order: UK with Andy Price. His solo TV debut was BBC Wales’ favourite Baker Boys - which bagged him that year’s BAFTA Cymru for Original Music. As well as scoring 3 series of BBC favourite Silent Witness he’s gone to work on a slew of TV and Film projects for companies like BBC, Channel 4 and A&E.

As a co-founder of media music company GOODKILL he has written music for various movies and commercials - including branding work for King.com and music for BAFTA-winning video game Overcooked! - the title track of which has currently clocked up over 85m streams. GOODKILL are currently working on music for several upcoming video game projects.

As a pop writer and producer, Adam continues to work with various artists as well as remixing bands like Everything Everything and Guillemots. With Days Are Done he appeared at Glastonbury Festival and live in session on WSM in Nashville and BBC Radio 2. He’s currently working on a new, as-yet untitled project.
